A Ducati 750 GT in this condition is a real delight when you see the round-engine Ducati standing before you. Its even better when the 'Königswelle' has been meticulously restored, with attention paid to many details, even the smaller ones. Ducati enthusiasts know that the sound of these engines brings even more joy. The engine number is: DM750-7552XX. Experience suggests that, with this chassis and engine number, we can speak of 'matching numbers'.
