General Information:

The Unimog 421 filled the gap between the light and heavy Unimog series. It was especially valued in municipal services and in smaller agricultural operations.

In the 1980s the structure of activities changed and agriculture required more powerful Unimog models. As a result production of the mid range Unimog 421 was gradually reduced and finally ended in 1988.

After many years of restoration we are pleased to present a Unimog 421 U52 U600 from 1983. The first registration took place on 20.04.1983. The convertible version is extremely rare on the market.

Unimog 421 models from the 1980s in scrap condition with thousands of operating hours and high mileage are usually valued between 25000 EUR and 35000 EUR. Restorations today take two to three years if it is even possible to find someone with the right qualifications for the job.

The vehicle is very easy to drive compact and fits in a small space. It is a Unimog 421 convertible version with a canvas top and a cargo bed.
